CRG RESIDENTIAL VOLUNTEERS FOR HABITAT FOR HUMANITY BUILD

Indianapolis, IN (Monday, March 21, 2011) – CRG Residential with the assistance of C.E. Reeve Roofing has volunteered for an on-site panel build to benefit Habitat for Humanity. CRG will work under the supervision of a “Nail Captain” to nail the studs and panels of a house in place. The panel build will take place on Wednesday, April 13th downtown on Monument Circle from 7:30am until noon. In order to complete the project, CRG Residential has gathered over 35 employees committed to working over 150 volunteer hours. At noon the panels will be erected on Monument Circle and will be disassembled later by volunteers and hauled away by 84 Lumber for use on a future Habitat for Humanity home. The Indianapolis Colts, Exact Target Marketing, and IPL will also be participating in the panel build. Habitat for Humanity, with the help of companies like these, builds homes for deserving local families.

CRG Residential, based in Carmel Indiana with offices in Chicago and Washington D.C., is a full-service construction company focusing on multifamily renovation and new construction from the Midwest through the eastern United States. CRG builds for a wide range of private and public owners and institutional clients as well as for affiliated entities such as Hearthview Residential.
